Thanks to:

1. My wife Aliza, without whose support and encouragement this project would not have gotten as far as it did.
2. My brother Barry for constructive criticism, testing, and the icon.
3. The United States Naval Observatory for their Sunrise/Sunset Algorithm, which made correct calculation of the Hebrew and Islamic calendars possible.
4. The creators of Jewish Calendar, MyZmanim, and Ultimate Zmanim, whose programs were used to check whether various Jewish events were done correctly.
5. Dr. Irv Bromberg for Weekly Torah Portions and Special Sabbaths, which made much of the Jewish event calendar possible.
6. Rabbinical Mathematics and Astronomy by W. M. Feldman.
7. Those who contribute to Stack Overflow.
8. Those who contribute to Wikipedia.
9. Sunrise Sunset, which is useful for double-checking.
